

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

The undersigned participant/student indemnifies iPole Dance Studio from any claims arising from any injury sustained whatsoever during any class instructed by any employee of iPole Dance Studio.

iPole Dance Studio will strive to ensure that all safety precautions are taken prior to and during classes but will not be liable for any accidents or injuries that might be sustained from taking part in any such classes or being on the premises during such an event. Participants who participate in the classes do so solely at their own risk.

When teaching dance, it may be necessary to spot a student to prevent injury. This may require physical contact to be made.

It is also the student's responsibility to always inform the instructor teaching the class of any existing medical conditions, including but not limited to, dizziness, epilepsy, heart conditions, broken bones, sprains etc.

Photos and videos may be taken from time to time during classes and iPole Dance Studio would appreciate the consent of the student to use such content on its website and social network pages for marketing purposes.
